I have known CHARLIE MELLINO for several years.

In his capacity as a Real Estate agent, he has been always "right on the job" - quick to attend to any complaints or queries, and also very prompt to carry out any requests.

He has access to a wide range of people who are essential when dealing with property, from tradesmen to tree-surgeons. This guarantees satisfaction to the client.

Charlie was my agent when I recently (29 Oct 2011) auctioned a property, and the whole deal proceeded smoothly and easily. He kept me informed of the whole process through weekly meetings, was always easy to contact via mobile phone, and did everything to ensure a most satisfactory result, with a price exceeding expectations.

I can thoroughly recommend Charlie Mellino to any prospective client. His pleasant personal manner and his ethical approach to his business are a guarantee of satisfaction.
